

The ARRL's position in this issue makes more sense than any of the changes in many years. I think this is a clear cut plan and will guide the amateur radio service in a positive way for the future. It should increase participation in all the ranks and provide more efficient use of the spectrum.